Description

1930's walnut display cabinet / bookcase. The box top over two shaped doors open to reveal two adjustable shelves which are lined with red upholstery - all over drawers that are furnished with decorative metal handles and raised on cabriole legs. This is a lovely display cabinet / bookcase. It is sturdy and solid, yet looks very elegant. Its size makes it perfect to fit in most houses and its beautiful colour and patina will blend with most decor. Overall, this lovely piece of furniture is in good order, although there may be some superficial cosmetic marks here or there - but nothing major to note!
