Description

A superb early 20th-century bentwood hall stand. This elegant piece features eight S-shaped coat hooks and eight bentwood scrolls for hats, all surmounted by a turned finial. The top of the stand is designed to spin, adding a unique touch to its functionality. It is raised on a cluster column, finished with four down-swept legs, and includes a ring for sticks and umbrellas. A striking and practical piece that combines both style and functionality. Item Ref; M-5836 . DIMENSIONS: Height - 205cm / Width - 60cm / Depth - 60cm . CONDITION REPORT: The hall stand is in good antique condition overall, with some signs of age. There is surface wear in various places, including age-related marks and scratches throughout the piece. Additionally, there are scratches to the bottom rails and to the feet, consistent with its age and use. These imperfections are shown in the accompanying photos. Our experienced carpenter meticulously inspects, repairs, and restores each item in our collection. This ensures that every piece you purchase from us is ready to be seamlessly incorporated into your home.
