Description

A George V silver photo frame from the Deco era with hallmarks for London 1922 and makers mark most likely for Arthur George Rendell. This is a good quality frame with plain smooth silver wrapped round the sides. The frame has an oak easel back which is kept in place by a high silver rim at the base of the back and a hook. The back is also cleverly hinged for its removal for inserting the photo. It is in excellent condition. Internal image 12x7cm
