Description

A stunning, fine and impressive antique 3.31 carat diamond (total) and platinum solitaire ring; part of our diamond jewelry/estate jewelry collections. This stunning, fine and impressive antique solitaire engagement ring has been crafted in platinum. The pierced decorated four-claw setting displays a principal 3.03Ct Old European Round cut diamond. The basket style setting is ornamented to the sides with twenty-four pavé set eight cut diamonds. The elevated, pierced decorated ring shoulders are each set with six pavé set diamonds and meld seamlessly with the engraved scroll decorated shank. The interior of the shank is hallmarked with the platinum mark (P.707) and has been independently tested using state of the art technology (Niton XL2 Analyzer) and verified as platinum. The antique diamond ring is supplied with an independent diamond grading certificate for the feature stone, in addition to an independent diamond grading report card for the supporting stones. Such original antique rings with elaborate and desirable settings are becoming increasingly difficult to locate. Images do not always reflect the true color and brilliance of gemstones and diamonds.
