Description

William IV Rosewood Chiffonier with Mirrored Doors and Shelved Back Item Code: 1140 A fine quality William IV chiffonier, beautifully constructed in richly grained rosewood. The piece features a raised back with two fixed display shelves supported by turned uprights, all framed by a shaped gallery. The lower section offers a central cupboard flanked by mirrored panels, with carved foliate decoration to the stiles and door fronts. A shaped frieze drawer sits above the cupboard, adding both elegance and practical storage. The piece presents very well, with minor signs of wear commensurate with age and use. A refined and decorative piece ideal for dining or drawing room settings. Key Features: * Circa 1835, William IV period * Well-figured rosewood throughout with excellent colour * Raised back with two tiered shelves and turned supports * Central cupboard with panelled doors flanked by original mirrored sides * Decorative carved foliate details to stiles and frieze * Single frieze drawer with moulded edge * Stands on a solid plinth base Dimensions: * Width: 108 cm * Depth: 45 cm * Height: 148 cm
