Description

A finely hand painted papier mache Chinese export tea caddy from the 19th century. The outside of the caddy is decorated with gilt chinoiserie scenes and the caddy stands on carved gilded wooden paw feet. The black lacquered inside of the caddy houses the original engraved pewter tea canisters with matching inner and outer covers. Condition: slight rubbing in places to the decoration, one inner lid is missing a button handle and the canisters have a couple of small slight age related splits. Key no longer works.
