Description

This impressive chest of drawers we believe to be around 1900 but in a really great looking Georgian style. As the pictures show it has good colour amazing graining and quite a rare size, book matched veneers look superb on the drawer fronts. We have put this through our workshops and it has been cleaned and is now in lovely condition. The handles are brass swan necks and all in place. Dove tails on the drawers are hand cut and the whole chest sits on neat little bracket feet. Dont hesitate to give us a call to discuss, but its a great size, really neat with good storage for its size. It is such a good looking little item, it almost seems a pity to put it in a bedroom.
