Description

Here we have an outstanding Arts and crafts Oak dressing table in the manner of E A Taylor c1900. As you can see the dressing table has great colour and patina. There are turreted up rights to the sides of the mirror and the front of the top section. The mirror has the advantage of being full length so perfect as a dressing mirror. The doors have wonderful inlaid marquetry panels in exotic woods and pewter. The panels depict the sunrise and sunset and are exquisitely done. There are shelves to the inside of the cupboards and the whole sits on stile legs with square moulded feet. A stunning dressing table in fantastic retail condition ready for your home. The dimensions are approx 170 cm high 118 cm wide 50 cm deep.
