Description

A stunning, fine and impressive vintage 3.23 carat diamond and 18 carat white gold trilogy ring; part of our diverse diamond jewellery and estate jewelry collections. This stunning, fine and impressive vintage 1960s engagement ring has been crafted in 18ct white gold. The pierced decorated setting displays a central claw set 1.27ct transitional modern brilliant round cut diamond. The central diamond is flanked by a claw set 1.00ct and 0.96ct transitional modern brilliant round cut diamond, creating a stunning display across the bridge of the finger. The elevated, pierced decorated ring shoulders integrate with the claw setting and blend seamlessly with the plain hallmarked ring shank. This vintage diamond ring is hallmarked to the interior of the shank with the 18ct gold mark (18K) and has been independently tested using state of the art technology (Niton XL2 Analyzer) and verified as 18 carat gold. This impressive diamond trilogy ring is supplied with three IDGL diamond grading report certificates. Such trilogy rings incorporating over three carats of diamond are highly desirable. A diamond three-stone ring is a timeless symbol of love, commitment, and cherished ...
