Description

BEAUTIFUL ORIGINAL 19thc RIVERSCAPE WATERCOLOUR PAINTING Att to William Foster? Brief Description: This is a beautiful and original 19th-century Watercolour Painting depicting a tranquil riverscape with a tall, period bridge spreading the length of the small hamlet. It is an interesting piece as it is signed/monogrammed "F" within a small circle and, to the rear of the painting, an old label is inscribed: "This picture was painted by William Foster (died 1924) Son of Myles Birkett Foster". It is a wonderfully depicted scene with excellent attention to detail throughout. It is mounted within the original 19th-century Victorian glazed and gilt frame. Attributes: Watercolour painting Signed: 'F' Circa: 1890-1900 Condition: The painting and the frame are offered in an exceptional original condition. Note; There are a handful of ancient tiny bugs between the glass and the picture mount - see images.
