Description

This is a decorative French amboyna, ebonised and marquetry inlaid two tier occasional table in good original condition dating from the late 19th century, circa 1870. The table has a pierced brass gallery to the top tier with an oval panel inlaid with leaves and flowers flanked by a trailing border. The marquetry-inlaid frieze has brass finials suspending chains beneath. The lower tier is brass mounted and equally, decoratively marquetry-inlaid with a beautiful floral panel. The table is raised on turned and splayed ebonised legs. This measures 77 cms high 50cm wide by 36cm deep. UK delivery can be arranged with our trusted furniture courier and costs £60 plus vat to most destinations.
