Description

This simple and elegant still life depicts a potted Geranium and a bowl of Oranges on a table decorated with a vase and a tablecloth. Clearly, the artist chose objets close to her heart - and close at hand - to create a simple, warm and feminine display of domesticity. Dating from the 1930s, this is a work by Elisabeth Pohlenz-Mostar (1904-1986), a member of the Association of Berlin Woman Artists. She exhibited at the Great Berlin Art Exhibition, one of the key events of the visual arts scene in Germany between 1893 and 1969. The painting comes from the collection of Marleen Lange, Berlin and Madeira. Signed and dated 1934 at the upper right, our oil on canvas measures 41 x 51 cm and is presented in its original wooden frame. The overall framed size is 47 x 56.5 cm.
