Description

A 19th Century French Mahogany Guéridon or Centre Table with Moulded Marble Top. This lovely table stands particularly well on its three bronzed paw feet. Above them is a tripartite platform base and three straight columns leading to the apron of the table. The veneers on the piece are of fine quality and contrast beautifully with the ormolu wreath mounts, capitals and bases used to highlight the columnar supports. The quality marble top is black with white and grey speckling and has a deep moulded lip.
