Description

A stunning Art Deco diamond trilogy ring, crowned with a hypnotic, square step cut diamond solitaire on top, with two smaller trapeze cut diamonds on each shoulder. The centre stone has excellent VS1 clarity – H colour and is expertly cut, with neat, linear facets that flicker beautifully in the light. It weighs approx. 1.8 carats, with 0.10ct shoulders, bringing the total to approx. 2 carats. Diamonds are truly a stone of perfection, desired for their rarity, durability and exceptional sparkle that is second to none. Their superior qualities have made them the ultimate symbol of love across the ages, with their strength and ceaseless fire representing eternal love and devotion. The ring is modelled in solid 18ct white gold, with a pronounced four-prong mount for the principal stone which crowns it high atop the finger. It would make an eye-catching Art Deco engagement ring with the trilogy of stones representing past, present and future, or those three little words, “I love you”.
