Description

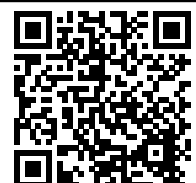

A charming antique 19th-century elm farmhouse table. It features a rectangular top with rounded corners, set above three frieze drawers on one side. The table stands on sturdy square tapering legs, combining practicality with rustic character. Item Ref; M-5869 . DIMENSIONS: Height - 80.5cm / Width - 172cm / Depth - 78.5cm / Legroom - 62.5cm . CONDITION REPORT: In good antique condition overall, with some signs of age. There is surface wear throughout, including age-related marks and scratches. The top shows some shrinkage, fading and there is evidence of historic woodworm to the top (pictured), though this has long since gone and has been fully treated as a precaution. One of the ends has had a historical repair, which adds to its character. Our experienced carpenter meticulously inspects, repairs, and restores each item in our collection. This ensures that every piece you purchase from us is ready to be seamlessly incorporated into your home. To provide you with a comprehensive understanding of the item's condition, we kindly request that you take a moment to thoroughly review all the accompanying photos.
