All my antique armchairs have been fully restored, springs, legs, padding etc so these will stand the test of time even if used everyday. This is a very high quality and beautifully designed Georgian period library chair. It is simulated rosewood which is a fabulous age old method of elevating the timber used. This chair is elegance personified and although 200 years old it will look amazing for another 200 years to come. It is complete with original brass front casters and we can add period ones to the back legs for you as well if you prefer. This is one seat cushion but if you can do us for the upholstery as well then we can add a back cushion as well. Height 80cm Width 59cm Depth 78cm Depth of seat 60cm Height of seat 38cm
