Description

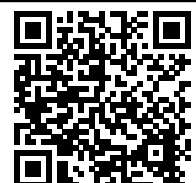

A magnificent antique Victorian walnut leather top partners desk. This was made in England, it dates from around the 1860-1880 period. It is of extremely high quality, and is a large and impressive piece. The front has lots of drawers and storage space as you would expect, the back side has two lockable cabinets and three more drawers, this comes with locking keys. It stands on plinth bases with original casters so it can be rolled around. The walnut has a beautiful colour and rich patina. The top has just been re-leathered, hand coloured and gold tooled. This comes apart into three sections for easy transportation, it is a good working desk and has a generous sized knee-hole space. We just had this recently French polished, it is in fantastic condition for its age.
