Description

This quality antique Mizpah Ring features the word 'MIZPAH' modelled in 18ct Yellow Gold. Mizpah is a Hebrew word that means 'watchtower' and is interpreted as 'May God watch over you.' Mizpah jewellery is worn as a token of love or friendship and first became popular during the Victorian era. The ring is in very good antique condition and sits flat against the finger, with the lettering wrapping around the top. It's complete with hallmarks within the band, indicating it was made in London in the late 19th Century. METAL 18ct Yellow Gold RING SIZE UK - L / US - 5.75 WEIGHT 2.7 grams HALLMARKS Crown, 18, London, Date letter worn MEASUREMENTS Measures 8mm across widest part CONDITION This 18ct gold MIZPAH ring remains in good antique condition. There is no damage to note, although there is some surface wear to the MIZPAH lettering due to age. The ring boasts clear hallmarks that confirm metal, making this an excellent addition to your antique jewellery collection.
