Description

A very pretty Victorian occasional table with a delicate turned mahogany base mounted on ceramic castors, with a beautiful octagonal Pietra Dura marble top. The top is inlaid with specimen stones in an elegant floral design. Condition: The marble top was very dirty when we acquired it. We have cleaned it as best we can but there are still traces of dirt on the moulded edge. The table base is in good condition other than some woodworm holes in one leg - this does not appear to be recent but we have treated it as a precaution. The castor on the same leg looks as though it has been reattached and is slightly misaligned. The top has been glued to the base presumably to prevent it being knocked off by accident. I'm not sure the top is original to the base, but the two go very nicely together. Dimensions: Width/Depth - 61cm Height - 64.5cm Mainland UK delivery (excluding the Scottish highlands) is included in the price - if you would like a quote for delivery elsewhere, or if you would like to collect the item yourself, please get in touch.
