Description

A remarkably small and charming case of taxidermy by the world-famous Rowland Ward of London. Totally unfaded. Circa 1900. Just 23cm x 18.5 high. Unlabelled, as is often the norm with Rowland Wards smaller cases. Direct from our own private collection. Note: For more information on this most famous firm see "A History of British Taxidermy" by C. Frost, still the greatest book on the subject of Victorian Taxidermy. NB. We do currently have one of these books in stock, signed Ltd Edition No 565 priced @ £120.
