Description

Gents 1930s Art Deco wrist watch. The watch has a Swiss 15-jewel hand-winding, probably by Adolph Schild, which is working nicely. The watch measures 25.5mm wide excluding the winding crown, and 31mm high excluding the fixed wire lugs. The case is rose rolled gold. It has some unevenness to the sides but otherwise is in good condition. The convex lens has the odd mark but is very acceptable (white reflection showing in the photos). The dial is in its original finish with a red 12, blued steel hands (one is a period replacement), and inner minute markers. There is some age related marking to the dial but it is fairly light. A new leather strap has been fitted. The watch comes in a new presentation box.
