Description

This is a sculpture in brass of a fighter (Spitfire) on a mahogany base probably intended for a gentlemen's dressing table (for studs, cufflinks etc) or as a desk ornament. Sometimes this is referred to as "Trench Art", though this looks to have been created by a very competent modeller probably on a commercial basis. There is a sister piece to this of a "Flying Boat". Size. Aircraft wingspan - 5.75" (14.5cms). Base diameter - 4" (10cms)
