Description

This is a sculpture in brass of a Liberator B24 Bomber on a mahogany base probably intended for a gentlemen's dressing table (for studs, cufflinks etc) or as a desk ornament. Sometimes this is referred to as "Trench Art", though this looks to have been created by a very competent modeller probably on a commercial basis. There is a sister piece to this of a "Spitfire". Size. Aircraft wingspan - 9" (23cms) Base diameter - 5.5" (14cms)
