Description

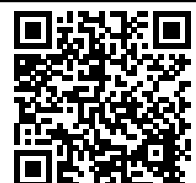

This is a 7' tall antique country manor corner cabinet. A Scottish, fine oak two-tier cupboard, dating to the Georgian period, circa 1750. Superb Baronial cabinet, with striking proportion and vibrant painted interior. Displays a desirable aged patina and in good order throughout. Quality oak of exceptional figuring presents warm caramel hues. An abundance of medullary rays throughout. Panels accentuated with inlaid borders in mahogany. Of free-standing form in two substantial sections. Suite of five shelves behind to sets of cabinet doors, of graduated height. Interior resplendent in a later hue of 'Regency Teal' for a dashing contrast. Diamond inlays host inset locks to each cabinet — in working order, keys present. Functional centre drawer flanked by a pair of faux drawer fascia, each dressed with brass pulls. Standing upon shaped bracket feet to the front, with a panelled rear. This is a striking antique country manor corner cabinet, of grand proportion and materials and suited to grace the finest of residences. Solid joints and construction, delivered ready for the home.
