Description

Historical 19th Century Victorian Painting Brocklebank Line Four Masted Barque Steel Hull Ship Ship Sindia . Impress your guests or your clients with this marine masterpiece the ship was owned by John D Rockefeller for your home or office. Watercolour & Gouache on paper with a front protective glass cover Title "The Vessel Sindia Four Masted Barque Steel Hull Sailing Ship". Circa 1896 late 19th century Victorian era. Initial signed bottom corner by the English school artist artist AES along with name of ship Sindia in the opposite bottom corner. Set in the original traditional masculine tiger oak frame which enhances this work further. A delightful display size with the frame being 62.5 cm wide and 49 cm high. Subject seascape marine view of the known four masted steel hull barque ship, sailing in a brisk wind towards the left in rather choppy high seas in full side profile view set during the afternoon. With the majority of the sails hoisted & ensign flags flying high, with the union Jack ensign also flying at the stern. With some of the crew figures out on deck, the name of the ship Sindia is visible on the bow and also on the second mast. In the distance on the rig...
