Description

A lovely oak desk chair dating from the early 20th Century. It is a good comfortable chair and very well made with a cushioned upholstered seat with a studded border. It has curved arms and straight splats and it stands on nicely shaped legs joined by a double stretcher. It makes a lovely desk chair but would also be a nice library or hall chair. It is approximately 34" (86cm) high, the arms are 22 1/2" (57cm) wide and the chair is 18" (46cm) deep. The seat is approximately 18" (46cm) high. It is in very good condition for its age. It has developed a lovely aged patina with a rich colour and is structurally very sound. There are signs of age and use and it is not without a few small marks here and there but nothing detrimental or untoward. It has been gently cleaned and polished and is ready for use. The best description comes from the photos so please look at them all carefully and if you have any questions just ask. Nationwide delivery available through our network of reliable couriers.
