Description

This antique 19th-century blanket box is a charming and rustic piece, crafted from solid oak and standing on small bracket feet. With its timeless appeal and sturdy construction, it is both a practical and decorative addition to any home. Featuring metal carrying handles on both sides, this box is designed for ease of movement while maintaining its traditional aesthetic. The spacious central storage compartment provides ample room for blankets, linens, or other household items. With a rich, warm colour and beautifully aged patina, this piece exudes character and history. A true classic, perfect for adding vintage charm to any space.
