Description

Stunning Musical Elliott London Black Chinoiserie Three Train Clock Lacquered. This beautiful and very large clock is made by the esteemed Elliott London and is Retailled by Harrods London. The dial is brass and engraved and has a silvered chapter ring set out in roman numerals. The dial also features spandrels to the corners and arch and features a silvered plaque to the arch reading "Tempus Fugit". The dial is also signed "Harrods London" as well as "Elliott London" and "MADE IN ENGLAND". The case is beautiful and extremely rare on a clock this size as it has a black base colour adorned with beautiful chinoiserie paint work. The sides of the case feature people and oriental houses with the front and top featuring a multitude of flowers and houses. The paintwork is an array of beautiful golds, reds, greens and blues. The clock is three train and wound via the door to the front. The movement is accessed via the rear door and chimes both Westminster and Whittington which can be adjusted via the back. The clock also features an automatic night shut off which stop the clock from chiming between 11pm and 7am. The clock is ticking away and chiming perfectly as it should. ...
