Description

Antique Edwardian Mahogany Double Wardrobe. A lovely wardrobe with great proportions. We are delighted to bring to you one of the finest examples of a rare Edwardian (circa 1890) double wardrobe, ideal for any period property. The wardrobe is made from solid Mahogany complete with fiddle back Mahogany veneer to the frontage. The wardrobe has a beautiful array of inlays to the frontage, including a very ornate swags & tails with foliage to a centre fan which is flanked either side by its bevelled original mirror glass doors with unusually no foxing to the glass. We love the wardrobes very elegant deep moulded top pediment, complete with chequered Rosewood & Boxwood detail in the centre. This wardrobe has great proportions and is unusually raised on legs to a square moulded block foot. The doors open to reveal its spacious interior with 4 brass triple revolving clothes hooks per side and the doors have all of their original brass hardware, including door stays and is complete with its working latching locks with its original keys. The base consists of 2 deep dovetail constructed drawers which work perfectly with its original polished brass handles and working locks with or...
