Description

A beautiful burr walnut sewing table dating from the mid to late 19th century. It has a single fitted drawer above a large silk lined sewing compartment. The drawer comes with a key but please note this does not work but can be used to pull open the otherwise flush drawer. The table has a beautifully shaped top and stands on spiral twisted legs with scroll feet joined by a spiral stretcher. It is an excellent quality piece and there are small castors below the feet and shaped finials below the top. The table is in very good condition for its age and is strong and sturdy. It is generally clean and tidy throughout and the drawer opens well. There are normal signs of light wear and age, a few minor marks and knocks but no major damages or anything untoward. It has been cleaned and gently polished and is ready for use. The best description comes from the photos so please look at them all carefully and if you have any questions just ask. Nationwide delivery available through our network of reliable couriers. Please get in touch for an accurate quote to your location.
