Description

A charming country oak side table with single drawer dating from the early 19th Century. It is a particularly small size and has a planked top with moulded edge and it stands on tapering square legs. The drawer has brass ring handles. It is in good original condition and the oak a wonderful warm patina. It is strong and sturdy and the drawer opens smoothly. There are normal signs of age and use, some small old marks and knocks but no major damages and it is a good honest little table. It has been gently cleaned and polished and is ready for use. The best description comes from the photos so please look at them all carefully and if you have any questions just ask. Nationwide delivery available through our network of reliable couriers.
