Description

This antique 20th-century set of six wheelback dining chairs is a charming and timeless addition to any dining space. Crafted from solid oak, the set consists of four single chairs and two carver chairs, all featuring beautifully turned legs with a supporting stretcher for added strength and durability. With a classic wheelback design, these chairs showcase a stunning grain and warm oak colour, enhancing their traditional appeal. The joints are solid, ensuring longevity and sturdy support for everyday use. This set is in good condition and of good quality, making it a perfect choice for those looking to add antique charm to their home. A matching dining table is also available in a separate listing.
