Description

This is a good set of three Chinese 19th century paintings of noble dignitaries painted with fine skill in gouache on pith. These are attractively framed in their original antique gilt frames that are nicely rubbed, they have the original gilt metal decorative hangers and gold mounts. The set are lovely antique condition. As is often the case with this fragile medium there are some splits to the pith but the works are all intact and secure in the frames. They are all painted in lovely bold colours with great attention to detail. They all measure 25 cms by 32 coverall including the frame. UK insured packing and delivery is £15
