Description

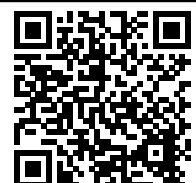

A delightful early 19th-century North Wales oak dresser base with timeless charm. The piece features three drawers, two of which can be secured with a latch inside the cupboards. Below, four central drawers—three of which are decorative dummy drawers—are adorned with brass drop handles. Twin cupboards on either side provide ample storage, while the dresser stands on sturdy stile feet, showcasing its classic craftsmanship. Item Ref; M-5868B . DIMENSIONS: Height – 87.5cm / Width - 139.5cm / Depth - 46cm . CONDITION REPORT: There is some surface loss and staining, adding to the character of the piece. Evidence of past woodworm is present, though it has long since gone and has been treated as a precaution. One of the drawer interiors has a hole. Despite these signs of age, the dresser base remains in great overall condition, retaining its charm and functionality. Our experienced carpenter meticulously inspects, repairs, and restores each item in our collection. This ensures that every piece you purchase from us is ready to be seamlessly incorporated into your home. To provide you with a comprehensive understanding of the item's condition, we kindly request that you take a mo...
