Description

This is a particularly attractive wine table. English c.1800 in gorgeous original condition with one small nick out of the edge. The piece is made from an unusual timber which I believe is Tiger maple. It has a lovely satin type finish to the type and a strong flame running through the legs and the base. The top is a single piece of timber which gives it a lovely tactile finish. Overall a very elegant addition to a room. Height 78cm Width 40cm Depth of legs 40cm
