Description

An excellent George III silver navette shaped tea caddy. Made in London in 1802 by Charles Aldridge who worked in a workshop on the Corner of Falcon Street and Aldersgate Street. This caddy has a full set of hallmarks under the base and an armorial on the back. It has a wooden finial and a hidden style hinge. There is a lock with no key. Generally the caddy is in excellent condition with no repairs. This is a very keenly priced Georgian tea caddy. A very collectable piece. WEIGHT; 365 grams or 12 ozst approx. Free delivery in the UK. Payment by bank transfer, card over the phone, PayPal or Klarna. Using Klarna payments can be split over three months.
