Description

This is a beautiful side table that is made from oak and a solid top of burr yew. The colour, patina and age make this one of the best looking country tables I have had. The condition is very good with an honest historic joint on the top with an unusual oak peg fixing which only adds to the decorative appeal of this table. Solid condition and will work very well in a huge number of interiors. Height 67cm Diameter 55cm Depth of legs 41cm
