Description

This is an exceptional late 18th century comb back Windsor chair made from Yew wood. The colour and design makes this hugely attractive. The condition is also very good with no major faults and full height legs which is a rare thing for chairs of this age. This would make a wonderful desk chair or one of a harlequin set around a dining table. Whatever its use it will look great. Height 103cm Width 60cm Depth 58cm Depth of seat 40cm Height of seat 43cm
