Description

A beautiful Victorian antique silver and agate brooch with a central amethyst. Probably made in Scotland around 1880, a typically Victorian brooch. It has a "C" type Victorian style clasp. The six agates are a collection of moss and Montrose agates with an expertly cut central amethyst. This brooch is in excellent condition with no damage or repairs. It comes in a period box and would make a superb gift or addition to a collection. WEIGHT; 22 grams approximately. Free delivery in the UK. Payment by bank transfer, card over the phone, PayPal or Klarna. Using Klarna payments can be split over three months.
