Description

Victorian pen and ink stand made of Coromandel wood with satinwood inlays and stringing and with solid silver mounts and feet. This is a wonderful quality item, the timber is a great colour and the whole piece is in fine condition with just a tiny piece of veneer missing from the lower front edge. Also the lids of the ink pots are not original but replacements can be found of course. The silver is hallmarked Rupert Favell of London dated 1886. 23cm wide 16cm deep TF081

Internal Ref: TF081
