Description

John Sowden born 1838. Lived Bradford and exhibited 1883-1914 at the RA, Walker Art Gallery, Liverpool, Manchester City Art Gallery, Royal Institute of Painters in Watercolour and elsewhere. Rievaulx Abbey was a Cistercian abbey in Rievaulx, near Hemsley, in the North York Moors National Park, North Yorkshire, England. It was one of the great abbeys in England until it was seized in 1538 under Henry VIII during the Dissolution of the Monasteries. The wider site was awarded Scheduled Ancient Monument status in 1915 and the abbey was brought into the care of the then Ministry of Works in 1917. The ruins of its main buildings are today a tourist attraction, owned and maintained by English Heritage. 'Rievaulx Abbey' signed watercolour, image size 12x16.75 cms, framed size 32x37 cms
