Description

A highly desirable set of six antique Regency rosewood dining chairs dating from circa 1820. The reassuringly heavy, and beautifully figured rosewood frames with curved oblong top rails over attractively pierced and carved centre rails. The newly recovered drop-in seat pads are supported by tapering fluted front legs and sabre legs to the rear. Construction/Wood: Rosewood Condition Report: Good condition with good colour and patina. Wear and marks commensurate with age. Traditionally upholstered seat pads which have been newly recovered. Some old, filled-in worm holes to a few of the seat rails. Some old well-executed repairs to a few of the frames. 5 chairs are very solid, 1 chair is slightly loose at the back. Dimensions: Height: 86cm Width: 46cm Depth: 50cm Height to Seat: 47cm
