Description

A fine 19th-century writing slope crafted from premium satinwood and detailed with striking ebony banding. Its generous, large scale and distinguished form make it a beautiful statement piece for a library desk, a study table, or a prominent living room console. The box opens to reveal a sophisticated black leather inset writing surface that lifts to uncover a series of hidden fitted drawers underneath. The contrasting tones of the pale satinwood against the deep ebony moulding showcase the precise cabinet making and high level of luxury craftsmanship popular during the Victorian era. The piece is in showroom condition. It is ready for immediate use in the home.
