Description

A lovely example of a Victorian rocking chair dating from the mid 19th Century. It has a pretty scrolling shape with a mahogany frame on an X-frame base joined by turned stretchers on long sweeping rockers. The chair has been recently upholstered in a good quality Jane Churchill fabric which compliments the chair. It is a good quality chair. The mahogany has developed a lovely rich patina and the frame is adorned with turned roundels. The chair is in good overall condition and is strong and sturdy. The upholstery is clean and tidy. There are a few minor marks and knocks around the frame and one roundel is missing from the base but it still displays well. The best description comes from the photos so please look at them all carefully and if you have any questions just ask. Nationwide delivery available through our network of reliable couriers.
