Description

Edwardian walnut grandmother clock This Edwardian walnut grandmother clock was made circa 1910. This grandmother clock is a superior version of the usual clocks of this style you see. It is made in walnut and styled in the Queen Anne style of a longcase clock. It has an 8-day German movement with Westminster chimes, that strikes on every quarter and on the hour. The sliding hood with the very fine barley sugar columns, and the fretted sides to allow the gently chimes to be heard. The case has the lovely long door with feather banding. The door opens to reveal the long pendulum. This clock is working, that gives a pleasant chime and a soft tick. The base of the case has the sectioned walnut mouldings that replicate the ones you find on all period walnut pieces. Imagine this lovely clock in your home and the pleasure it will give. 161cms high 63 1/2ins 34.5cms wide 13 1/2ins 19cms deep 7 1/2ins All Measurements are as accurate as possible Delivery UK mainland FREE Other destinations please contact us, and we will get a quote.
