Description

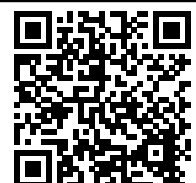

Excellent George II Oak Corner Cabinet - c1750 - Lower Drawer This cabinet is in great order and benefits from a lower drawer. A quality example with inlay to the door with marquetry revealing a stellar motif. The fielded panel door hangs on an original pair of external brass butterfly show hinges. The door opens to reveal a pair of shelves and a clean oak-lined interior. Below the main cabinet there is a single full width drawer. This lovely and unusual extra affords a secret in the form of a hidden 'valuables' drawer which is disguised as a drawer runner and is accessed by sliding the main drawer right out. Both the top cabinet and the bottom drawer are complete with fully functioning lock and key. Overall a really super example of a George II English Oak corner cabinet and a rare find.
