Description

A charming old Danish pine cupboard dating from the 1920s, standing 64.5" high. It retains its original hanging pegs inside at the top, along with two shelves, with the option to add more if needed. Featuring a single door that opens from left to right and a lower drawer, this piece is in great, solid condition. It is currently in bare wood and available for £580 as it is, or £647 if waxed. With an internal depth of 15", it may be a bit shallow for hanging adult clothing but could work as a children's wardrobe with smaller hangers. If desired, we can install a new brass hanging rail at the top. Dimensions: Height: 64.5" | Width: 34" | Depth: 19"
