Description

A stunning pair of 1920s Louis-style bedside cabinets, meticulously restored and hand-painted in an elegant ink blue chalk paint. The finish has been carefully enhanced with soft wax, creating a timeless, velvety sheen while preserving the charm of the original wood. The design features delicate brass-toned handles and gracefully curved legs with subtle gilded highlights, adding a touch of French sophistication. One cabinet offers five drawers, while the second features two upper drawers and an open shelf. Their classic craftsmanship and versatile storage make them the perfect statement pieces for any vintage or contemporary home.
