Description

A magnificent pair of Victorian mahogany & leather captain's desk chairs, in superb condition, showcasing exceptional craftsmanship and timeless elegance. These chairs have been newly upholstered in the finest quality leather, hand-dyed through a traditional technique to achieve a rich, lustrous buffalo brown hue, adding a luxurious touch to any office or study. The design features a deep-buttoned backrest, creating a sophisticated and inviting look, while the cushioned arms and seat are complemented by a brass-studded trim for a refined finish. The graceful turned mahogany spindle supports lend a sense of balance and vintage charm, effortlessly enhancing the overall aesthetic of the chairs. The generous, wide seat provides ample comfort for long hours of sitting, making them ideal for a desk or study setting. Resting on turned mahogany legs with functional casters, these chairs offer both style and practicality, allowing for easy mobility without compromising on stability. With their classic design and high-quality finish, this matching pair of chairs will make a statement in any room, blending Victorian elegance with modern comfort. W 59.5cm/23.5" D 64cm/25.75" H...
