Description

Super Quality Heals Teak Edwardian Antique Garden Dining Table & Chairs This solid teak Heals antique garden dining set is in amazing original condition and has obviously been stored indoors during the Winter so in excellent, strong and complete condition. Made in the twenties by Hughes Bolckow the ship breakers in Blyth, Northumberland from teak timbers from the decommissioned battleship S.S.Ontario. Labelled by the maker for Heals of London's Tottenham Court Road showroom who retailed them. A great design, perfect for a smaller garden, terrace or balcony. The slatted square dining table has four shaped legs with a under shelf, the four dining chairs fit neatly under the table when not in use, forming a neat cube. The original metal makers label is on the table. All the pieces are in superb condition. One of the best examples we have had into stock.
